January 30, 1967

Dear Mr. Lawson,

Book me up as solidly as you'd like.

I plan to spend the night before in Boston and will try and get the first plane out in the morning. I haven't had a chance to speak to my travel agent, but I presume you have an idea of the schedule. I'll phone you from Boston and give you the time when I make the reservation, if I do it there.

Where I sleep makes little difference, as long as there is transportation to the airport available in the morning. I do not know if I'll have to stop off in New York on the way back, but I suppose I'll still want to make the earliest plane out. And I welcome the opportunity to talk with the students after it is over. I do not require and usually do not get very much sleep.

The things you mention sound exciting. I'm looking forward to it.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

P.S. If your bookstore wants copies of the two books, AkA Distributors, Holbrook, Mass., is the closest wholesaler. Bokazine and Dimondstein, two other large wholesalers, also stock both. Both are available from us at regular trade arrangements. And the first book, WHITEWASH: THE REPORT ON THE WARREN COMMISSION, is available in a Dell reprint.